

2021-22 Preview

The Valparaiso University men's basketball program will look to continue its forward trajectory during the 2021-22 season, the program's fifth in the Missouri Valley Conference. Valpo improved its seeding in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the fourth straight year in 2020-21 and earned a first-round bye in the event for the first time since joining the prestigious league.

The Beacons will blend a group of talented returning players with an exciting crop of newcomers. Head coach Matt Lottich's roster is comprised of five transfers, five freshmen and eight returning players.

Four of the players who have transferred into the program come from the Big Ten Conference, including three from Wisconsin – Kobe King, Joe Hedstrom and Trevor Anderson. In addition, Thomas Kithier transferred in from Michigan State and two-time first team all-conference selection Kevion Taylor joins the fold after previously playing at Winona State. King was named Wisconsin Mr. Basketball and Gatorade Player of the Year in high school, while Anderson was also honored as Wisconsin Mr. Basketball and the Associated Press Player of the Year following his senior season.

The class of five freshmen includes 6-foot-8 guard Keyondre Young, who was named the Oklahoma Basketball Coaches Association Player of the Year and the Super 5 Player of the Year by the Oklahoman following his senior season. The group of rookies also includes Trey Woodyard, Darius DeAveiro, Cam Palesse and preferred walk-on Preston Ruedinger.

The 10 newcomers will join a talented crop of returning players, led by Ben Krikke, who earned a place on the All-MVC Third Team, MVC Most-Improved Team and MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team last season after averaging a team-best 12.3 points per game. Sheldon Edwards is back for his sophomore season after achieving MVC All-Freshman Team status. Other returning players include sixth-year senior Eron Gordon, junior Emil Freese-Vilien, sophomore Connor Barrett and walk-ons Tyler Fricke, Brock Pappas and Luke Morrill.

The highlight of Valpo's 2020-21 season came on Feb. 7, when the team recorded an upset victory over previously-undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team. The 74-57 triumph was the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and the second of the Lottich Era.

Matt Lottich enters his ninth season overall at Valparaiso University and sixth as the head coach of the men's basketball program in 2021-2022. He owns an 83-78 record over his first five seasons as head coach.

The 2020-2021 season saw Valpo improve its Arch Madness seeding for the fourth straight year as the program continued to make positive strides in each season as a Missouri Valley Conference member. The team earned a first-round bye in the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time since joining the prestigious league.

Valpo upset previously undefeated Drake, the nation's No. 25 team, 74-57 on Feb. 7, 2021 at the ARC, the fourth win over an AP Top 25 team in program history and second under Lottich. The Bulldogs were one of three undefeated teams in the nation prior to that setback, joining Gonzaga and Baylor. Valpo came close to two other victories over ranked foes, falling 80-77 vs. No. 25 Drake on Feb. 6 and 54-52 at No. 22 Loyola on Feb. 17.

Just two years removed from finishing in last place and being knocked out in the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament as a first-year Valley member, Lottich's team did more than hold its own in 2019-2020, ascending into a tie for sixth in the league standings before finishing as the conference tournament runner-up. Valpo became the first team in the history of Arch Madness to reach the title game after playing in the opening round.

Lottich led the program to its first conference championship game appearance since 2015 during the 2019-2020 campaign, doing so after being picked to finish ninth of 10 in the preseason poll. Valpo reached the conference title game as only a third-year MVC member, becoming the first Valpo team in any sport to do so during the department's young tenure in the prestigious league. After finishing with its highest conference win total, highest overall win total and highest finish in the league standings since joining The Valley, Valpo accepted a postseason tournament invitation to play in the Colleg-Insider.com Tournament. The event was ultimately canceled due to COVID-19.

During the 2019-2020 season, Lottich led the program to its largest win increase from the previous season (four) since jumping from 18 wins in 2013-14 to 28 in 2014-15. Valpo finished with a winning record during the nonconference portion of the season for the 10th straight year. In addition, the program continued its history of home dominance and hasn't finished with a losing mark at the ARC since 1991-92, extending its streak to 28 seasons. Valpo achieved a double-figure home win total for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

The 2019-2020 team's finest hour came on the biggest stage, as Lottich led the squad to three victories in as many days at Arch Madness, the 2020 State Farm MVC Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Lottich's team came from 18 down to upset Loyola in the MVC quarterfinal, tying for the second-biggest comeback in MVC Tournament history. During his time guiding the program, Lottich has instilled a no-quit attitude, as his team has erased double-figure deficits to win 15 times over his first four seasons while coughing up a double-figure advantage just once in that span.

In his first season at the helm of the Valpo men's basketball program, Lottich guided the team to its fifth Horizon League regular season championship in a six-year span as he led Valpo to 24 wins and an at-large berth into the NIT.

Lottich arrived at Valparaiso University in summer 2013 and helped guide the team to 78 victories over his three seasons as an assistant. Valpo won two Horizon League regular season championships and one league tournament title over those three years.

Lottich brought nearly a decade of professional playing experience to the head coaching position at Valparaiso University. He spent eight years playing professionally in Japan for the Oita Heat Devils and the Osaka Evessa, earning All-Star recognition four times.

Lottich played collegiately at Stanford University from 2000-2004. As a senior in 2003-2004, he helped lead the Cardinal to the Pac-10 title while earning NABC All-Star plaudits, awarded to the Top 15 seniors in college basketball. He was also a member of the Wooden Award midseason watch list and was an Honorable Mention All Pac-10 selection as a senior.

Lottich played his prep basketball at New Trier [Ill.] H.S., where he was named the Chicago Tribune Athlete of the Year in 2000 and holds the distinction of being the program's all-time leading scorer. Lottich graduated from Stanford University in 2004 and currently resides in Valparaiso with his wife, Kylan, and their four children: Grace, Matthan, Christian and Landon.
